to-day. As nominations are in order, we suggest the name of W. A.
Switzer.

Tom Davis, the popular clothing man, who carries samples for H. S.
Bridge & Co., of San Francisco, is in town.

For fresh Peabody creamery butter go to Cameron & Lind, who have just received one thousand pounds. tf

If you want to buy or sell anything or want a situation call at the Real Estate and Employment office of G. A. Woods.

J. Salzman sold, this week, 121, 000 pounds of wool, to Christy & Wise, wool commission merchants of San Francisco.

John Sanderson, the popular soda water man, has just received his new soda fountain and his store is now thronged nightly.

A deed from J. J. Donahue to W. C. Bayless, for three lots in Flagstaff, 75x150 feet, has been filed for record. Price, $225.

Geo. E. Miller, who travels for the Kroger Clock Co. and Derby Silver Co., of New York City, was in town this week.

Ground was broken last Thursday for the ditch in which will be laid the water mains from the water works at Clark's spring.

D. Pentland, Dentist, will visit Flagstaff about the 15th of July, when he will be happy to attend to his numerous patrons. jun23

Wm. M. Munda, a prominent stockman of the Verde Valley, is visiting town this week and shaking hands with his many friends.

"Ded" Hawis is making extensive improvements on his new hotel and it is now the best one between Albuquerque and The Needles.

Mr. Moyna, representing the dry goods firm of Levi Strauss & Co., San Francisco, was in town this week, soliciting orders for his house.

M. E. Shepperd will have straw-very ice cream on Sunday at his popular restaurant opposite the Railroad Depot. All are cordially invited to attend.

Boys—get your burros in shape for the Fourth of July races.

Miss Maggie Brannen and Miss Verkamp made the CHAMPION office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon.

Briggs Goodrich, Attorney General of the Territory, died at Phoenix on the 27th instant of Bright's disease.

The different committees have been appointed and are expected to do the duty towards the Fourth of July celebration.

An ice cream social was held at the M. E. Church last evening, the proceeds of which will assist largely in defraying the church debt.

Impurities of the blood often cause great annoyance at this season; Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and cures all such affections.

Last week some careless or malicious person set fire to the fence around the corral at Jim Black's ranch. Jim is now busy swearing and constructing a new one.

The Mexican Central freight depot at Paso del Norte was burned on the 29th. Seventy freight cars were also destroyed. Loss, $200, 000.

W. E. Pratt, of Milton, is entitled to the honor of naming the republican nominee for President, several days before the convention did.
He called the turn on Harrison.

Hey there! Jake. What have you got in that bundle? I have one of the best suits of clothes in town for the money. That settles it, you have been buying from Chas. Laub.

FOR SALE.—A complete carpenter shop, one planer, 6-horse power steam engine and all the necessary apparatus for a saw and door factory. For full particulars apply to Chas. Oulbach. jun30tf

Read the advertisement of S.
Martin, wholesale dealer in liquor and general merchandise, which appears in this issue. Mr. Martin is an old merchant and offers bargains.

At the semi-annual election of Flagstaff Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., the following officers were elected:
G. C. N. G. Layton; V. C. L. L.
Burns; Prelate, Geo. H. Tinker; M. of E. J. W. Francis; K. of R. and S. Wm. Mayflower; M. of A., Hugh Campbell. The meeting was largely attended and much enthusiasm was manifested.

The Fourth of July committee of arrangements would like to have the people take an interest in the celebration and as many as can join the horrible procession—get up any kind of a rig and be on hand. The horrible procession will be formed at Milton, at Foster's stable. All hor-ribles are requested to meet there in full rig at 1:30 p. m.

Every precaution should be taken to guard against fire on the Fourth.
The small boy with the fire cracker should be duly instructed to keep his combustibles away from old building. Anyone tying fireworks to a dog's tail should be fined. Hot tempered people must keep in the shade. All words commencing with "h" should be cautiously indulged in. A word to the fire department is sufficient.

J. P. Fonger has been given the contract for establishing the water works system, which enterprise is headed by Messrs. John Clark and George Campbell. The water will be forced into a large tank on the hill north of E. S. Clark's residence and from there conducted in pipes over the town. Sufficient pressure will be obtained to throw the water over any building in town. The scheme will prove of immense benefit to Flagstaff.

The ladies of the Catholic Church will give a dinner on the grounds in the Brannen addition on July 4th.
Everything edible will be served in the most tempting style by the hands of fair ladies who are conducting this enterprise for the benefit of the new Catholic Church, which is now in the course of construction. Lemonade, ice cream, etc., will be at hand in abundance, as well as more substantial food.
Miss Maggie Brannen is at the head of this commendable movement, ably assisted by the other ladies of the Church.

A car containing a delegation of school teachers en route to the National Educational Association at San Francisco, was side-tracked here Tuesday and Wednesday, giving the tourists an opportunity of visiting old friends and acquaintances and enjoying the beautiful scenery in and around Flagstaff. They were hospitably entertained by Miss Flora Weatherford and Mr. P. P. Dages, to whose kindness and courtesy the party acknowledges many obligations. Many personal friends of Miss Weatherford and others of our town were among the party. Following is a list of the excursionists:
Dr. J. Baldwin, Pres't State Normal School, Huntsville, Texas, and Miss Cora and Mabel Baldwin; Rev. A.
Clark, Thorpe Springs, Tex.; Pres't Addison College; W. G. Rickard, Oenaville, Tex.; J. T. Moore, Trinity, Tex.; D. F. Eggleston, Ladonia, Tex.; Mrs. L. A. Halley, Salado, Tex.; Miss E. Halley, Salado, Tex.; Miss Mattie Edrington, Salado, Tex.; Miss Julia Dunlap, Sulphur Springs, Tex.; Miss M. Welch, Goliad, Tex.; Miss Bessie Gillespie, Huntsville, Tex.; Rev. A. I. Hobbs, Pres't Garfield University, wife and daughter, Wichita, Kan. The party were very favorably impressed with our town and predicted for it a bright future.

It is more than probable that Flagstaff will be the seat of the new county. Its growth is rapid and permanent and it has a rich country on all sides from which wonderful wealth is now and will continue to be distributed.—Tucson Star.

WANTED.—Fifty good strong mule or horse teams with drivers for Rail Road work; will pay good wages. Apply to H. B. DALTON, Monday, July second, 1888, at Flagstaff, Arizona.
Work to commence immediately.

J. L. Fisher, one of the leading merchants of Prescott, went through this week on the west bound train, en route from Chicago and other eastern cities, where he has been purchasing goods for his large mercantile house.

Friends of Mr. Graves (Boston) who left Prescott last winter intending to go to the Navajo country on a prospect for ranches, mines, etc., begin to fear that evil has befallen him and his companion, a gentleman of Flagstaff.—Courier.

Messrs. Carl Reiche and H.
Sharpe, of Demopolis, Alabama, are visiting our mountain town. The gentlemen are the guests of Dr. P.
G. Cornish. "Doc" is talking over old times with them, as they not only come from his native state, but also town, where his parents reside.

Subsidy or no subsidy, Billy Stewart is made out of the right kind of stuff, and his party could find no better representative throughout the great County of Yavapai. But would it not be wise for the Signal to first learn positively whether Mr.
S. is "working wires" or not before making unnecessary comments?— Winslow News.

Dan Maloney met with a serious accident Thursday, while helping move the Haley building. One of the levers used in raising the building slipped, letting it down upon his foot, bruising that member so badly that he will probably be laid up for some time. Dan has been unfortunate this spring, having only just recovered from a bad scald on the same foot.—Mohave Miner.

Richards' fruit and confectionery store has again assumed the appearance of a bee hive and we have reason to believe customers will have to wait their turn to be served with the luxuries his place affords as his house is decidedly too small for his business or his trade is too large for his house. Richards, move into a larger room and make up your mind to stay. Kansas City can do better without you than Flagstaff can.

P. J. Brannen is selling staple and fancy groceries for less money than any house in town. He is selling Kansas City sugar cured hams at 15 cents per pound.

4 cans of Cutting's Best Table fruit $1.00 4 cans of Cutting's jellies and jams 1.00 5 cans of Cutting's choice tomatoes 1.00 6 cans of eastern peas 1.00

Last Monday one of John W.
Weatherford's teams met with a slight mishap. One of the parties in the rig discharged a pistol, which frightened the horses. In trying to control them, Howard Jordan, who was driving, was severely bruised about the head and face. He held the team, however, the only breakage being one of the hind wheels, which came in contact with an old stump.

The extensive outfit belonging to the Hemenway Archaeological Survey, in charge of Mr. Chas. A. Garlich, camped in town Monday and Tuesday of this week. The movements of this survey are directed by Mr. Frank Cushing, who has recently made some valuable and positively original discoveries relating to ethnology and archaeology in the Salt and Gila Valleys. Mr. Garlich stated that the survey would spend this season in the vicinity of St. Johns and Zuni, and next season possibly around Flagstaff.

In a letter to J. R. Halsey, our lumber dealer, under date of June 15th, T. A. Riordan, Secretary of the Arizona Lumber Company, at Flagstaff, expresses the sympathy of that company for the sufferers in the great fire as follows: "Yours of the 17th inst. informing us of the disastrous fire your town was visited with yesterday, duly received. We can sincerely sympathize with you in your misfortune, as you know we have been there ourselves a while ago. If any of your people are suffering in consequence, kindly subscribe fifty dollars to aid them temporarily and charge to our account. Hoping it will be a long time ere any other misfortune will overtake your flourishing little town."—Mohave Miner.

Through our exchanges we learn that a strong effort is being made to secure from Governor Zuliak a pardon for Sol Barth. His petition has been signed by ten of twelve jurors who tried him, and by more than 400 residents of Apache county.
From our knowledge of the man, we think there are many worse men outside of the penitentiary than Sol Barth. He is one of the pioneers and trial makers of Arizona. He has risked his life in more than one encounter with the Apaches, and by his energy and industry did more than any man in Apache county to make that section what it is. He has a large family, and his wife, an accomplished Spanish lady, is devoted to him and doing all in her power to secure his release, in which we wish her success.—Tucson Star.

"Esmeralda,"
The Flagstaff Dramatic Company did themselves "proud" in the rendition of this long expected drama last Saturday evening. A full house greeted the scene that was revealed when the curtain rolled back with majestic deliberation, guided by the unfaltering hand of "Zeke" Bowman. The play throughout was received with marked enthusiasm which was richly deserved, and without exception the players covered themselves with distinction.

The part of "Old Man Rogers" was sustained by Mr. R. S. Clarke, in a manner that indicated genuine talent. All the other characters were admirably portrayed, everyone contributing essentially to the marked success of the play.

Though the character of "Mrs.
Rogers" would be a difficult one for any young lady, Miss Coffin carried it out with decided success, and for the evening, at least, would have been declared "old enough to vote."

"Esmeralda" was personified naturally, accurately, and with a spirit that elicited generous applause, by Mrs. R. S. Clarke.

As "Dave Hardy," R. H. Cameron shone in the role of a devoted lover.

Dr. Marshall seemed perfectly at home in the character of "Estabbrook" and scored a hit in the love episode with "Norah."

"Jack Desmond" would have been flattered could he have seen the way Charley Keller interpreted his peculiarities.

Mrs. D. M. Riordan played the part of "Norah Desmond" with a finish and naivete that captured the audience.

"Kate Desmond" was effectively presented by Miss Maggie Murray.

The "Marquis," a rival of "Dave Hardy," for the hand of "Esmeralda" would have turned green with envy could he have witnessed F. S. Summers use usurp aristocratic bearing.

"George Drew," the greedy speculator, who would have purchased the iron drift on "Rogers" farm for a song, was depicted unaffectedly by the sawed-off "Zeke" Bowman.
Zeke Bowman is a natural born actor, and will be prodigy when he gets his growth.

Miss Marshall, in the capacity of "Maid," performed her part gracefully and creditably.

Something over $150 was netted, which sum will be applied to a public reading room.

During the play several elegant bouquets were presented to different members of the troupe by admiring friends. Mrs. D. M. Riordan, Mrs. R. S. Clarke, Messrs. R.
H. Cameron and C. S. Bowman, being among the recipients. The bouquet presented to Mr. Bowman was an elaborate affair, being a striking combination of native florals and a rare exotic of the Brassica Oleracea variety. After repeated rounds of gentle, but decided solicitude, Zeke acknowledged the compliment by an entrancing bow and a smile that would melt the pyramids of Egypt.

HOW'S ESMERALDA?
G. Fitzgerald—"On time."
C. S. Bowman—"Oh I'm no Duchman. Ask Tinker." T. A. Riordan—"The play was immense. So was the cabbage. I think the prospects of a repetit on depend largely on the sour kraut market, though future investments in iron drifts may have favorable influence on Mr. Drew."

J. H. Hoskins, Jr.—"I think Mr. Hardy's character was—was admirably sustained, though possibly it might have been made a little more—more forcible had the audience been—yes, a little smaller."

G. A. Bray—"Yes, it was fine.
I am only sorry we didn't have it years ago. Oh, yes, Dr. Marshall is pulling teeth as skillfully as ever.
I don't think he was hit during the evening."

Dr. Cornish—"Well, I've lost considerable interest in the whole business. I've turned the cash over already."

Grover Cleveland—"My telephone was working very defectively and I didn't quite catch all of Mr.
Hardy's part. However, I presume he omitted nothing. Frankie says the wire was strung with red bananas, which were hung out to dry just after the Harrison boom set in, which accounts for my poor telephone service. However, I shall have ample time to attend in person after next March."

Jas. G. Blaine—"Please accept thanks and congratulations. I might have accepted a nomination had not my close attention to "Esmeralda" diverted my attention from the tremendous pressure that was brought to bear."

John H. Marion—"The money must be turned over to the P. & A.
C. R. R., along with the balance of Yavapai County. It was fine thing but Gov. Zuliak ought to have been given charge of it."

Simmons Liver Regulator Is what the name indicates a "Regulator" of that most important organ, the Liver. Is your liver out of order? Then is your whole system deranged, the breath offensive, you have headache, feel languid, dispirited and nervous, no appetite, sleep is troubled and unrefreshing Simmons Liver Regulator restores the healthy action of the liver.

The jury in the case of Mrs.
Neal, widow of Clarence Neal, who was killed by a car overturning on the Mineral Belt R. R., rendered a verdict for damages in the sum of $10,000 this week in the District Court at Prescott.

SHOPPING BY MAIL!

There can no longer be a doubt that shopping by mail is profitable. Thousands throughout the United States are doing it to their benefit and satisfaction, and the list continues to swell. Our facilities for handling this class of trade are unexcelled by any house west of the Mississippi. An entire floor of our mammoth three-story building is devoted solely to this department, and we have spared no effort to the end that out of town residents might have the SAME ADVANTAGES AS RESIDENTS.

We possess unequalled advantages in buying because we deal direct with the manufacturer. Being one of Hale's Seven California Stores, we thereby obtain advantages in values, which result from buying in large quantities; for it must be seen that the quantity of goods which these stores consume in the aggregate is enormous.

SEND FOR A CATALOGUE.

Our new spring and summer catalogue is now ready for distribution and will be mailed to intending customers upon application. It is a large illustrated pamphlet of 85 pages, and gives the price and description of any article in our stores. Samples of any dry goods free of charge.

IT WILL PAY YOU

To trade with us. The thousands of orders which we are constantly receiving from every State and Territory west of the Rocky Mountains, attest the taste, care, discretion and promptness which we exercise in meeting the requirements of our mail customers.

WHAT WE KEEP.

Our stock embraces Dress Goods, Domestic, Fancy Goods, Ladies Underwear, Gloves, Parasols, Hosiery Embroidery, Laces, Cloaks, Jackets and Wraps, Clothing, Clothing, Gents Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes Hats and Caps, Jewelry, Notions, Trunks and Valises.
